Deep in the rainforest!

Nestled on the banks of the Pacuare River, Rios Lodge is the perfect backdrop for your group event. Here you are surrounded by the beauty and splendor of Costa Rica's tropical rainforest, all while enjoying comfortable rooms overlooking the river, in-room electricity, lighted walkways at night, and sumptuous tropical meals and beverages. Sustainably built using reclaimed wood and totally off the grid with hydroelectric power, our ecolodge is an award-winning model of regenerative ecotourism.

Situated on 250 acres of primary and secondary rainforest, the lodge enjoys hiking trails created and used by the indigenous Cabecar people. Acquired by Rios Lodge Stewards in 2022, we are committed to upholding the Rios Tropicales heritage while introducing exciting upgrades and expansions, like the all new Eco Rooms that opened in 2023. Rios Lodge proudly operates with local staff and uses regenerative forms of power for electricity.

The Rios Lodge is located in Limon Province on the Atlantic side of Costa Rica. It is adjacent to the Cabecar Indigenous Reserve and to one of Costa Rica's largest biological corridors. The nearest towns are Santa Marta and tiny Bajos del Tigre—but don't let that fool you: we are not accessible by car! All guests, staff, and supplies come in either via hiking the trail or rafting down the river. Getting here is definitely part of the adventure fun...when we say we are a remote lodge in the rainforest, we mean it!

Our accommodations suit the needs of groups, families, solo travelers, and beyond, from budget to deluxe options.

Accommodations

Picture this: you and your group sitting on our scenic decks overlooking the Pacuare River, swapping stories about your zipline adventure or recent dip in the waterfall pool. Everyone has a cool drink in hand, and your chef-made dinner is minutes away. Life is good.

Your group's participants may sleep better than they ever have before at Rios Lodge! We offer a variety of accommodations:

- We have 17 private cabin rooms including suites, deluxe, and classic rooms with private bathrooms. These rooms comfortably accommodate 1 to 4 guests, depending on bed type.
- Or consider booking an all new Eco Room, with shared, gender-specific bathrooms. Eight bunk rooms sleep up to 8 guests each, with eight separate bunk beds in each fully screened room.

Founded in 1989 as a river rafting tent camp by Rios Tropicales co-founder Rafael Gallo, the lodge has evolved into an eco-conscious wilderness sanctuary. Open-air yet fully-screened rooms welcome the sounds of the rainforest and Pacuare River - Mother Nature's "white noise" at its most profound.

All rooms are within easy walking distance of the dining pavilion, river view deck, and multiple waterfall wading pools.

Meals Included

Our guests have many special experiences at Rios Lodge, and some of the most memorable happen during meals overlooking the river. This is the time to share stories, connect with friends old and new, and, of course, enjoy impressive dishes. Groups come together in our open-air dining pavilion for breakfast, lunch, and dinner to taste fresh, delicious flavors of the rainforest.

We minimize our ecological impact with renewable solar and micro hydropower energy. We reduce, recycle, and reuse wherever possible, and transport non-compostable items by rafts for proper disposal and recycling in Siquirres. Our Turrialba Operations Center reduces the load required of our off-the-grid energy systems and maximizes our efficiencies.

Our in-house chef knows that the best dishes start with the individual ingredients, so we prioritize using the freshest foods, locally sourced whenever possible. We partner with local farmers to source the highest-quality vegetables, eggs, and herbs. These partnerships help us create beautiful dishes that come straight from the land around you when you visit Rios Lodge, honoring our commitment to community and sustainability.

Dietary Needs

Our kitchen can accommodate dietary restrictions and food allergies, and we serve the following diets:

- Pescatarian
- Vegetarian
- Vegan
- Nut-Free
- Gluten-Free

If your group members have specific dietary restrictions, our team will work hard to support with them. Note that as a remote ecolodge, ample advance notice is essential. We will do all we can to ensure that everyone feels fueled and ready for the day's adventures!

About Our Chef

We are honored and excited to house a skilled chef who can turn simple, fresh ingredients into a meal you'll remember for years. From classic Costa Rican fare to thoughtful fusion dishes, our dining experience will leave you satisfied and looking forward to the next meal.

Chef Luca has traveled the world as a highly-esteemed chef, working in fine dining in France, the Caribbean, Canada, Ibiza, and now, Costa Rica. Chef Luca loves to play with fusion cuisine, combining unique tropical ingredients with the strategies of a French cuisine-trained chef.

- Rainforest reforestation & biodiversity protection.
- Collaborating with and supporting local conservation partners with in-kind and financial support to protect the greater Pacuare River ecosystem.
- Collaborating with local ecotourism partners to boost sustainable community economic development.
- Collaborating with indigenous communities to support their goals.
